

Philosophy of Logic and Language
Truth

Readings

- (1) Walker, R. (1997), 'Theories of Truth', B. Hale and C. Wright (eds.), A Companion to the Philosophy of Language (Oxford: Blackwell).
- (2) Soames, S. (1999), Understanding Truth (New York: Oxford University Press), ch. 1 and 8.
- (3) Horwich, P. (1999), 'The Minimalist Conception of Truth', in S. Blackburn and K. Simmons (eds.), Truth (Oxford: Oxford University Press).
- (4) Wright, C. (1999), 'Truth: A Traditional Debate Revised', in Blackburn and Simmons.

Questions (choose one)

- (1) Is the correspondence theory of truth defensible?
- (2) Is truth a substantial property?
- (3) Does the sentence 'It is true that grass is green' mean exactly the same thing as the sentence 'Grass is green'?

Wylie Breckenridge,
November 2006.